Wednesday is the Feast of St. Margaret of Scotland; Thursday, the Memorial of St. Elizabeth of Hungary

Ours is always a prayerful remembrance, taken above all to the altar of Christ's sacrifice. We remember the words on the memorial bench outside the church. Our prayer is not only for the men of the parish, but for all the men and women who died in the conflicts of the past century.

In prayerful memory of the men of St. Mary's who died in the Great War 1914-18
Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat

We pray for our Faithful Departed, especially those whose anniversaries are about this time: Johnnie Neil, Dick Cameron, Donald MacDonald, Jesssie MacKinnon (Canna), Patricia O'Reilly, Hugh MacDonald, Dorothy (Dot) MacDonald, Peter Mitchell, Donald MacPherson, Ellen Gallagher, Monique Masclet, Francis Hayes and Jean MacDonald. May their souls and the souls of all the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Thank you for your extraordinary kindness in support of our "Coin for Aurellian's Family". We had hoped for £300 in the baskets. We actually received £422.41!

The 30th November is the last day of the Diocese's Financial Year. We have still to have a special collection for the Diocesan Pastoral Fund. Fr. MacKinnon forgot about the Ecclesiastical Students' Fund. We will have a collection for both of them next Sunday and then get whatever is collected off to the Diocese as soon as possible.

Please help out with the church cleaning Church cleaning after Mass on Thursday morning. Your help is deeply appreciated.

The new offering envelopes will be available next Sunday.

Please hand in your Missio Membership donations as soon as you can.

Our thanks to all those who took part in the Bishop's retreat.
