We have a double collection today: for the Ecclesiastical Students' Fund and for the Diocesan Pastoral Fund. Whatever you can give will be deeply appreciated. This will be the last collection of the Diocese's financial year.

Our warmest congratulations to Noelle Doherty and Neil Peter McGinniss who were married in St. Mary's this Saturday, with Fr. Donald MacKay officiating. We wish the newly-weds great happiness and many blessings in the years ahead. And it was nice to have Father Donald back in the Fort!

Our sincere thanks to those who cleaned the church so thoroughly after Mass on Thursday.

We pray for our Faithful Departed especially those whose anniversaries are about this time: Mary Gribben, Cathie Crow, Annie MacDonald, Mark Donoghue, Angela Adams, Annie Morrison, Mary Flora MacKay, Archie MacKay, Mollie Cameron, Edward Archibald, Margaret MacLean, Rose Gardetto, Ina MacDonald, Ann Shankley, Calum MacDougall, and William MacPherson. May their souls and the souls of all the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Because of high winds, a tree has fallen at the back of the Chapel House, cutting one of the phone lines. Phone and Internet access is not possible at the moment. We are waiting for word from BT engineers so that a date might be arranged for repair. Let us hope that this will be done as soon as possible.

Fr. MacKinnon had hoped to have the new offering envelopes available this Sunday, but he needs more time to attend to this. They should be available next Sunday.

Next Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent.
