4 to 4.30 p.m.
5.30 to 5.50 p.m.

May Devotions Wednesday, 7 p.m.

Friday is the Feast of the Visitation of Our Lady; Saturday, the Memorial of St. Justin, Martyr.

On this Trinity Sunday we proclaim the God who has revealed himself as Father, Son and Spirit. Every Sign of the Cross that we make today, in church or at home, is especially prayerful!

The Feast of the Visitation has been set aside as our "Day for Life." Next Sunday there will be a special collection in support of all the Church in Scotland does to assert and protect the sanctity of every human life, from conception to the moment of death.

We pray for Faithful Departed, especially those whose anniversaries are about this time: Laurence Childs, Neil MacKinnon (Canna), Thomas Grant, Moira Jones, Elizabeth (Baba) Laird, Bridget Keenan, John MacLaren, and Ian Wynne. May their souls and the souls of all the Faithful Departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Fr Kasule has been given his certificate number by the UK Border Agency and will be with us once again this summer. His many friends in this parish will be pleased to see him once again.

There is a leaflet available concerning Sister Audrey and Sister Thérèse. Please ensure that you collect one.

Holy Communion will be taken to the housebound this week, from Monday to Wednesday.

The last of our May Devotions will be on Wednesday of this week. Do try to come along!

*O Lord our God,
we proclaim your eternal holy Trinity and undivided Unity.*

During the Easter Season we journeyed through the Acts of the Apostles. Here is a quiz based on that book:

Potpourri

I would rather work with God in the dark than go alone in the light. (Mary Gardiner Brainard)

Every Christian needs a half hour of prayer each day, except when he is busy; then he needs an hour. (St. Francis de Sales)

Forgiveness needs to be accepted as well as given, before it is complete. (CS Lewis)

Love is the child of freedom, never that of domination. (Erich Fromm)

He who is filled with love is filled with God himself. (St. Augustine of Hippo)

The cruellest lies are often told in silence. (Robert Louis Stevenson)

Duty does not have to be dull. Love can make it beautiful and fill it with life. (Thomas Merton)

The Church that is married to the "Spirit of the Age" will be a widow in the next. (Dean W.R. Inge)

The glory of God is man fully alive. (St. Irenaeus)

The world is divided into people who do things and people who get the credit. Try, if you can, to belong to the first class. There's far less competition. (Dwight Morrow, in a letter to his son)

The most exciting phrase to hear in science, the one that heralds the most discoveries, is not 'Eureka!' (I found it!) but 'That's funny...' (Isaac Asimov)

A bird doesn't sing because it has an answer; a bird sings because it has a song. (Maya Angelou)

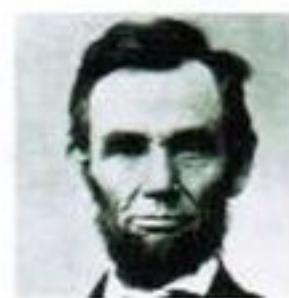

God loved the birds and invented trees. Man loved the birds and invented cages. (Jacques Deval)

Golda Meir

"Don't be so humble - you are not that great."

"Let me tell you the one thing I have against Moses. He took us forty years into the desert in order to bring us to the one place in the Middle East that has no oil!"

Abraham Lincoln

"Tact: the ability to describe others as they see themselves."

"If I were two-faced, would I be wearing this one?"
