		4 to 4.30 p.m.
		5.30 to 5.45 p.m.
October Devotions	Wednesday, 6 p.m.

Tuesday is the Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary.

Sunday, 19th October is the World Day of Prayer for the Missions. We will have the annual collection for the missions, and those who wish to renew their membership of Missio-Scotland will be invited to do so. We know that you will all be as generous as ever.

We pray for our Faithful Departed. We remember specially Peter MacFarlane who has died peacefully after a long illness. Peter was at the heart of the spiritual life of this parish, giving us an outstanding example of faithfulness, prayer and service. May he now be welcomed into the peace and joy of his Saviour. We extend our sincere sympathy and prayer to Louisa, Catherine and all the family. We pray also for those whose anniversaries are about this time: Mary McCarthy, John McAuley, Donald MacDonald, Teresa Mannion, Larry Lenkas, Ray Ann McRae, Flora MacManus, Charlene Masclet, Colin MacMillan and Maureen MacPherson. May they rest in peace.

Please note the change on Mass time on Monday, from 10.15 a.m. to 5 p.m. And please remember our October Devotions!

Potpourri

Man becomes a holy thing, a neighbour, only if we realise that he is the property of God and that Jesus Christ died for him. (Helmut Thielecke)

People who lean on logic and philosophy and rational exposition end up by starving the best part of the mind. (J.B. Yeats)

Sign in a little shop: 'Kindness spoken here.'
(Mildred E. Kordenat)

It is good if man can bring about what God sings within him. (Rabbi Elimelekh)

To give Our Lord a perfect hospitality, Mary and Martha must combine. (St. Teresa of Avila)

The loveliest masterpiece of the heart of God is the heart of a mother. (St. Thérèse of Lisieux)

Dogma means the serious satisfaction of the mind. Dogma does not mean the absence of thought, but the culmination of thought. (G.K. Chesterton)

If God were not willing to forgive sin Heaven would be empty. (German proverb)

The prayer "Thy Kingdom come", if we only knew it, is asking God to conduct a major operation. (George Buttrick)

LAW OF QUEUE: If you change queues, the one you have left will start to move faster than the one you are in now.

LAW OF TELEPHONE: When you dial a wrong number, you never get an engaged tone.

EGOTIST: Someone who is usually me-deep in conversation.
